

In recognition of the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday, the Billy DeFrank LGBT Community Center will be screening the acclaimed documentary Brother Outsider on Friday, January 15, at 7:00 PM in the 2nd floor conference rooms. Brother Outsider, which took five years to make and was the winner of more than 20 awards, tells the story of Bayard Rustin, who has been called “the unknown hero” of the civil rights movement. A tireless crusader for justice, a disciple of Gandhi, a mentor and teacher to Martin Luther King Jr., and the architect of the legendary 1963 March on Washington, Rustin dared to live as an openly gay man during those turbulent times. Brother Outsider reveals the price that Rustin paid for this openness, chronicling both the triumphs and struggles of his remarkable 60-year career.

Please join us for the start of 2010 by renewing your DeFrank membership and honoring the legacy of Rustin, Martin Luther King Jr., and Billy DeFrank. There is no charge for admission, and the screening is open to all.
